LNH—LANGUAGES—HEBREW

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES/WORLD LANGUAGES CENTER

LNH U101 Elementary Hebrew 1 4 SH
Designed for students with little or no prior knowledge of Hebrew. Presents a lively introduction to basic oral expression, listening comprehension, and elementary reading and writing. Uses practical vocabulary drawn from realistic situations, and aims at good pronunciation and ease in response.

LNH U102 Elementary Hebrew 2 4 SH
Continues LNH U101. Includes continued focus on oral expression, listening comprehension, and elementary reading and writing. Expands functional and practical vocabulary base drawn from realistic situations and focuses on grammatical accuracy. Continues to focus on good pronunciation and ease of response. Prereq. LNH U101, placement test, or permission of instructor.

LNH U301 Hebrew Conversation and Composition 1 4 SH
Provides students the opportunity to build their vocabulary and master fine points of grammar by engaging in written composition, preparing oral reports, and reading and discussing current Hebrew periodicals. Seeks to continue to develop students’ oral and written proficiency by focusing on the four language skills of listening, reading, speaking, and writing, with a special emphasis on adapting these skills to the demands of day-to-day communication. Although students are expected to learn grammatically correct Hebrew, the emphasis is on functional usage of the language and on communication in context. Prereq. LNH U102, LNH U122, or permission of department.

Continues the process of building vocabulary and mastering fine points of grammar begun in LNH U301 through writing essays, preparing oral reports, and reading and discussing current periodicals. Prereq. LNH U301, LNH U321, or permission of department.
